Spherion's Bellefontaine Office Gives Back to the Union Station of Logan County

Local staffing company embraces the holiday spirit through community giving

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio - December 5, 2014 - The Bellefontaine office of Spherion Staffing Services, a local recruiting, staffing and workforce solutions provider, donated $1,000 to the new community center of the Union Station of Logan County as part of the company's national Community Give Back program.

The Union Station Community Center in Bellefontaine offers financial assistance and employment services to individuals in the community. Spherion's Bellefontaine office chose this organization because of the impact it has in getting people to work, their existing partnership and because its mission aligns closely with Spherion's.

"We are so excited to contribute to the Union Station Community Center in Bellefontaine," said Karen Grothouse, Vice President of Sales and Operations at Spherion. "It is a great way to further our commitment to our local community and partner with our neighbors to make Bellefontaine a better place to live and work. The more often we are involved with organizations like the Union Station, the better we understand the needs of the Bellefontaine community. This in turn helps us more effectively serve the individuals who live here. Our priority is putting the people of Bellefontaine to work and contributing to the health of local community organizations and businesses."

"We very much appreciate the donation given to us by Spherion, and we are even more grateful for the partnership we have created with them," said Eli Carter, Executive Director of Union Station. "By Spherion using our site as a recruitment location, it is another way that Union Station can help out the people in our community, which makes for a great relationship. We plan to use their donation for our community summer program."

Each Spherion owner handpicked one or more organizations to "give back" to in advance of the holiday season. Overall, through this program, Spherion has donated $126,000 to local organizations in the communities where it operates. Spherion launched the national Community Give Back program to thank their communities and to help advance the important work of local charitable organizations.
